Finding Squares – City Planning (Part 2)

Suppose instead that the city planners have only a 6 x 6 grid space to work with.
- How many different square-shaped parks could they create to fit within the grid?
- What would the area of each park be?