Yellow Post-It Note
Ordered 12 packages of chips for the drama club—
sent extra home with kids

Yellow Post-It Note
Ordered 6 packages of chips for the soccer team—
Definitely not enough!

Pink Post-It Note
Ordered 10 packages of chips for the drama club—
They talked a lot with fake accents

Pink Post-It Note
Ordered 8 packages of chips for the soccer team—
My neighbor is on the team!

Blue Post-It Note
Ordered 8 packages of chips for the drama club—
Needed more!

Yellow Post-It Note
Ordered 3 gallons of drinks for the drama club—
drinks were gone long before the chips

Yellow Post-It Note
Ordered 4 gallons of drinks for the soccer team—
Warned them not to repeat last year's prank!

Pink Post-It Note
Ordered 4 gallons of drinks for the drama club—
Seemed about right

Pink Post-It Note
Ordered 4 gallons of drinks for the soccer team—
Watched the players like a hawk!

Blue Post-It Note
Ordered 5 gallons of drinks for the drama club—
(they talk a lot and seem to get thirsty!)

Yellow Post-It Note
Ordered 5 dozen cookies for the drama club—
I really like those kids!

Yellow Post-It Note
Ordered 7 dozen cookies for the soccer team—
Should I have ordered more?

Pink Post-It Note
Ordered 8 dozen cookies for the soccer team—
slipped a few extra to my neighbor.

Pink Post-It Note
Ordered 4 dozen cookies for the drama club—
Too much drama, too little character!

Blue Post-It Note
Ordered 3 dozen cookies for the drama club—
Should have ordered more

The image shows a grid of 15 post-it notes on a corkboard, each with a title and a short story. The notes are color-coded: pink, yellow, and blue. Handwritten blue text 'gallons', 'cookies', and 'chips' is written over the first three columns. To the right, the words 'drama' and 'soccer' are written in blue, with a 2x3 grid of numbers [3 5 12; 4 7 6] below them.
